The following declaration of principle was read and endorsed with tremendous individuals and of conventions should be left free from the influence of political patronage; that business men should not under fear of unjust official interference with their affairs be compelled to pay tribute for political purposes. We believe bute for political purposes. We believe that public offices are or should be creat-ed for public convenince, and not as re-wards for partizan services, nor for personal aggrandizements; that the acts of strict letter of the law creating them We believe that the triumph of Republi gen principles is of paramount importance to the country, and that the success of those principles in the approaching na-tional election does not depend on any one individual. We believe that the prosperity of the country demands a thorough radical and Immediate reform in all de-partments of the public service, civil, mil-itary and naval, and that the one term principle for the Presidential office will conduce more to that end than any other measure." measure, About a quarter to S o'clock Messrs Schurz and Trumbull arrived, and were Gereat cheering.] Another cause of complaint among the people is the one in which the patronage of this Government is used. If it uses so much money to carry elections not in the interest of the party even, it does not rise to the high dignity but in the interests of a portion of a party. [Great applause,] It is notorious, you all know it in the city of New York, for it has recently been disclosed by an investigating committee which recently sat in this city, that your custom houses here are filled with men who, instead of having received their men who, instead of having received their appointment in consequence of their fidelity, of their ability and capacity to discharge the duties of their office for the best interest of their country, are appointbest interest of their country, are appointed because of the influence it is supposed they are to exert at some primary election or State convention in treating you people on whom to vote for at the polls. [Laughter] This civil service system of ours is the parent of many evils. I cannot stop to-night to point out the officers in many localities who are taxed a portion of their salaries for party purposes, and it they do not perform the political duty required of them they are very soon removed and others substituted who will be active in politics. Passing from this question of civil service system, which would occupy an hour to discuss properly before you, I come to another measure which should create alarm throughout the country. I allude particularly to the assumption of unwarranted power on the part of the Federal Government, and the departments of the Fedral Government.
